

Charitable Campaign: Helping Seniors Improve Their Quality of Life

Good evening. This is just a short note here to discuss something very important. I love writing. I love sharing my experiences so that others can learn from them and hopefully have success also. It was once said that with great success comes great responsibility. This is not something that I have hid from or take lightly. I actually take great care and responsibility realizing that there are many in my very own community that requires assistance, right here in Fort Lauderdale. I would like to do what I can and I have been working very hard to that end. This great and noble cause has been one of the reasons it has been hard for me to blog on here the way I enjoy too.

Anyhow, I want to welcome all those who know someone 65 or older in this area to contact me. No games, no scam. Share their story, or help them to share their story with me also, so that I can help. I realize that many people above the age of 65, especially those in real need, do not often have access to a computer or perhaps even basic computer skills. This is where I will rely on my friends and visitors, to nominate someone and share his/her story and help spread the word so that together we can have a great impact and help our cherished neighbors, friends, and family. This is important to me, and I know it is important to many of you also. Let's act quickly and help all those as quickly as we can. I encourage everyone to do the same, especially those who are in a greater position to do so—this is our responsibility, our duty I think, to do so. I will look forward to these requests, and to helping as many of those in need in our area here in southern Florida as I can.

Thank you, and have a good evening.
